Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.” So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn.

Dear Parishioners,

I am grateful to Father Mark and the parish community of St. Mary of the Assumption for this generous opportunity. The greatness of Catholic schools is not a tale of yesteryear. We are a current phenomenon.

At St. Jerome School we are a community of people making great things happen for our children by emphasizing the celebration of faith, hope and charity. Our school maintains a culture and climate that nurtures the wonder and awe of children from 3 years of age to young adulthood. Our educational philosophy instills virtuous habits that foster moral standards of living which enable students to live life to its fullest potential. Nationwide research demonstrates that Catholic school alumni are more likely to vote, are more willing to tolerate diverse viewpoints, and are more committed to service as adults. Catholic school students are more likely to pray daily, attend church more often, retain a Catholic identity as an adult, and donate more to the Church. Simply stated, Catholic schools make the world a better place, and strengthen the culture and fabric of our Church.

I look forward to speaking with you more about our great school community and the great importance of Catholic schools. Thank you again for the opportunity.

With great respect and regards,

Mr. J. A. Hauser

I THIRST

THE HEALING INITIATIVE – RECOVERY, SPIRITUALITY, TWELVE STEPS

Empowering the Church to Be a Resource for those Suffering with Addictions and Their Families

I THIRST Spiritual Companionship Program (ITSC) is a two-day training with three follow-up webinars.

This free two-day seminar offers training on how to be an effective I THIRST Spiritual Companion (ITSC) for those suffering from addictions and their families. An ITSC is someone who offers spiritual consolation and recovery resource information – he or she is a cross between a spiritual director and a recovery coach.

This training is open to all parishioners, clergy and parish/school employees who are 21+ in the Archdiocese of Boston. No prior addiction recovery experience is needed.

This month, our social justice activities will be focused on our high school service program. Each summer a group of students and adult chaperones give a week to travel to a different city to engage in acts of service. This summer thirteen youth and three adults will be heading to Buffalo, NY July 7-12.

Pope Francis has challenged young people to get off the couch and go out to be missionary disciples and our high school youth accept that challenge through the summer service trip. Our students leave their friends, their summer job, sports, and the comfort of home to travel to a place they know little about, to live with other teens they don’t know, and serve in a manner they may not have ever done before. It is a true experience of faith and trust – in our loving God, in the leaders who accompany them, and in one another.

We participate in this week through the organization called Young Neighbors In Action (YNIA). YNIA provides a solid, Catholic approach to service and justice that balances catholic social teaching, direct service, and a justice heart and mind. In addition, the students deepen friendships and develop new ones based on a strong faith foundation. This week provides the experiences, skills, and learning to make change possible. Because above all, service is about change – changing the lives of people in need, changing the hearts of the those who provide service, and sharing that change at home when they return.

And this experience is not just for the students, there are three adults who will travel with the students this year. They too leave their families, take vacation time from their jobs, and give themselves over to the call to discipleship through mission. They too become agents of change. But for them, there is the added responsibility as the chaperones. These leaders make all the difference on a trip – they are substitute parents, caring adult friends, co-workers on a work site, ensure the safety and well-being of all participants and are the ultimate role model for the youth. For these adults, the drive to and from work sites is an opportunity to build relationships with their team while debriefing the day and helping the students to recognize the presence of Jesus Christ in their work. Once a work site is assigned, it is the adult, through the work of the Holy Spirit who will lead their team and if it is a challenging assignment who must model acceptance and determination to make the best of the situation – finding the good in all that is done. And when the adult engages in the work, engages with the people being served the young people engage as well. The adults on the trip are true leaders – trusted by the youth as they lead them to a deeper understanding of the meaning of discipleship and a stronger commitment to justice and service. Our leaders are a gift to the parish and to the young people they accompany on mission.

Our remaining fundraisers:

“Changing Lives”: As you begin your spring cleaning, bring all the change you find in the couch, on your dresser, in your car cup holder, to the bucket in the gathering space and help change the lives of those serving and those being served.

May 26th & 27th Memorial Week End Bake Sale: pick-up some extra goodies for those unexpected guests who often arrive on this unofficial start to summer.

June 10th and 11th: Sponsor Weekend: parishioners are invited to sponsor students on their week.
This weekend we welcome 21 new communicants to the Table of the Lord for the first time. Please congratulate these wonderful young boys and girls! Thank you to Bridgette Bernard, Doreen Love, Kathleen Sullivan, and Judy Vivien who have done a wonderful job preparing the children these past two years for this very special day.

Hard to imagine that another year of religious education classes has come to an end. Although there are times during the year when we wonder will it ever end, the reality is that time passes quickly and here we are at the end of the year. We would be remiss if we did not thank all of our catechists who give so generously of their time to plan lessons and be at classes in order to share their faith with the children of our parish. With great appreciation, thanks go to...
